On the Atlantic border of South Carolina's picturesque Low Country is a true vacation treasure—the unique barrier island of Hilton Head. Rich with Southern charm and abundant with natural beauty, history and culture, it transports you back to an era when life was simple. Strolling along nature preserves, playing oceanfront championship golf and spending lazy days on the marina rule the day's agenda. Hilton Head Island's mild subtropical climate makes it a favorite year-round destination for active vacationers.
