Summit Watch

P A R K C I T Y

This rugged part of the country once offered silver to adventurous miners and gold to the 2002 Winter Olympic athletes, and now it's a globally famous vacation destination. Surrounded by three areas for exhilarating alpine, cross-country and Snowcat skiing, Park City teems with winter activity. The lifts that take you to ski in winter also transport you to 30 miles of hiking and biking trails in summer. Museums, art galleries, concerts, fine dining and theatrical productions add to the cosmopolitan flavor of this unmistakably Victorian town.
